

Full service hybrid research and development

We test around 2500 new hybrids every year in addition to the hybrids advanced from previous years.

Each year only 10% of the hybrids tested are saved to be retested the next year. We also work with the inbred components of each hybrid.